

don't give up on me

a lyric

(men)

i saw her just the other day for the very first time it had been years apart but still she caught my mind on a lonesome night
 not a soul in sight

we used to sit for hours and talk about nothing
the way young lovers do when they're still good friends time opened up to us but then we lost touch

i won't give up on you
the past is gone
but the future's new
there is still time to find it
there is still time to find it
there's still time for me...to find you...
 to find you
 to find you...

she crisscrossed the country i split for paradise and friendship stayed friendship sometimes that's the price you have to pay for going far away

her eyes made me nervous like a teenage boy
but she still stared at me lookin' for the joy
 she knew was there
 underneath my fear

there is still time to find it
 to find you...

she can still play girls but she's not a girl anymore and i'm feelin' too old to play these games anymore the games of two young kids who once were friends...

it may sound crazy
but we used to write letters and sometimes in foolishness well, i'd send her some verse and even though it sucked she'd write back, 'thank you so much'...

a long time ago
this all should've stopped but some force somewhere keeps the two of us locked in chinese cuffs
i think it's time...to ease on up...

there is still time to find it

there is still time to find it

there is still time to find it
to find you...
