

It Is What It Is

“Go Politics!”

Do you really think that change is gonna come? (Do you think the time for change has finally come?)

No matter how hard you bang your drum

Has your candidate for change finally come?

Does it give you lots of hope about the run? (for the childrun)

Are you so naïve to think, that your choice means a thing

Can't you see the machine is broken? (was long ago)

Because...

It is what it is, and that's just how it is

It is what it is, can't you see the writing written on the wall?

the writing has been written on the wall and what it always will be is what it is so it's pointless to believe you can't change the machine no matter how hard you believe this is so much bigger than just you and me

Are you feeling like your new club is the bestest place to be? (most righteous)

Too bad you can't see the forest for the trees

Because...

It is what it is, and that's just what it is

It is what it is, ain't nothing gonna change it, especially not you and me

Are you thinking about who you're gonna choose?

Are you so excited thinking you can't lose? (So many candidates, you can't lose)

(All these many faces in the news)

Does your candidate for change make you proud to be a part of making American history?

Does he tell you that he's different?

Does she say that she'll bring change?

Does any of this strike you as strange?

(Well they wouldn't have it any other way)

Well...

It is what it is, and that's just what it is
And what it will always be

It is what it is, and that's just how it is
It is what it is, doesn't matter who you choose, you can't change how it is the system won't change not matter who it is it doesn't make a difference who it is

Just because you want it Doesn't make it so

It just has to work, it just has to
Don't you get it?

Because...

It is what it is...

"IT'S POINTLESS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"
